

Reviewing Fact Sheets and Key Messaging

- David Taylor, SARTAC, Member of the Michigan Developmental Disability Council, and Vice Chair for the TASH Board of Directors
- Erin Prangley, Director, Public Policy
National Association of Councils on Developmental Disabilities

Stories make you Memorable. Why your story is so important.

- You are an expert in your life experience
- The issues in the fact sheets affect you
- Be yourself
- Tell you story

Fact sheets make you Credible.

“By failing to prepare, you are preparing to fail.”

-Benjamin Franklin

- Fact Sheets v. Talking Points
- Making the connection
- Don't forget to make the “ask”
- “Do's and Don'ts”

Remember to say thank you.

No matter if you like them or not, be respectful and say thank you.

Role Play

DPS 2018 Issues

Civil Rights and Community Living

Medicaid

Social Security

Education

Federal Funding

